"The Texas Legislature does not set the amount of your local taxes. Your property tax burden is decided by your locally-elected officials, and all inquiries concerning your taxes should be directed to those officials"

Visit Texas.gov/PropertyTaxes to find a link to your local property tax database on which you can easily access information regarding your property taxes, including information regarding the amount of taxes that each entity that taxes your property will impose if the entity adopts its proposed tax rate. Your local property tax database will be updated regularly during August and September as local elected officials propose and adopt the property tax rates that will determine how much you pay in property taxes.

The Williamson Central Appraisal District does not set tax rates or collect the taxes on your property. The governing body of each taxing unit decides whether or not taxes on the property will increase. The Appraisal District only determines the value of the property.

Qualified disabled veterans may receive a partial exemption from taxation on one property under Tax Code Section 11.22. Visit support.wcad.org/portal/kb/articles/homestead-exemption-requirements for more information and qualifications.

10% Rendition Penalty Assessed: NO

NOTICE OF RENDITION REPORT PENALTY

§ 22.28. Penalty for Delinquent Report requires the Chief Appraiser to send a written notice by first-class mail informing a property owner when a penalty is imposed for failure to file a rendition timely; this notice may be delivered with a notice of appraised value. The tax code requires the Chief Appraiser to certify to the assessor for each taxing unit that a penalty imposed under this chapter has become final. The tax code specifies that a penalty becomes final if: the business owner does not protest the penalty before the ARB; an ARB determination denies a penalty waiver and the owner does not appeal to a district court; a district court judgement sustaining the determination has become final; or a court order that imposes the penalty has become final.
